

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

NEW FORMS OF PRIVATIZATION

WHAT THEY ARE. HOW WE FIGHT THEM.

OCTOBER 28-30, 2014 OTTAWA, CANADA

The Tools You Need to Fight the New Forms of Privatization

Provincial governments across Canada are introducing new forms of privatization or are making plans to introduce them.

While these new forms of privatization may have different names and use different methods, the impact on public services and on the people who provide them is the same.

The International Conference on New Forms of Privatization will give you the tools you need to fight them.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

- Alex Himelfarb: Former Clerk of the Privy Council, Director of the Glendon School of Public and International Affairs, and editor of Tax Is Not a Four-Letter Word.
- Dexter Whitfield: Internationally recognized for his research and policy analysis opposing privatization, Whitfield has worked with unions fighting to protect public services in the Europe, US, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

PANEL DISCUSSIONS

- What new forms of privatization look like
- What federal and provincial governments are doing
- How we respond: language and framing the message
- Two-track strategy to fight privatization

INTERESTED IN ATTENDING?

Participation at the conference will be limited and by invitation only. If you are interested, please send an e-mail to:

conference@publicservicesfoundation.ca

